1898, No. 33.

Title. AN ACT to make certain Provisions respecting the Establishment and Maintenance in Auckland of an Admiralty House and Grounds as a Residence for the Naval Commander-in-Chief of the Australasian Station and other Purposes.

[5th November, 1898.]

Preamble. WHEREAS the Auckland Harbour Board proposes to provide a suitable site and thereon erect, furnish, and maintain a suitable residence in Auckland as an Admiralty House and grounds for the use of the Naval Commander-in-Chief of the Australasian Station: And whereas in aid of the proposed work, and conditional on its being carried out to the satisfaction of the Governor, the Government has agreed that, subject to the approval of Parliament, a grant of one thousand pounds shall be given out of the public funds, and the existing Admiralty House and grounds in Auckland shall be vested in the Auckland Harbour Board in fee-simple: And whereas it is expedient to give effect to such agreement in manner hereafter appearing:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title. 1. The Short Title of this Act is “The Admiralty House Act, 1898.”

Auckland Harbour Board may provide an Admiralty House.

2. The Auckland Harbour Board (hereinafter called “the Board”) is hereby empowered to provide a suitable site in or near to the City of Auckland, and thereon to erect, furnish, and maintain an Admiralty House and grounds as a residence for the Naval Commander-in-Chief of the Australasian Station and otherwise as hereinafter provided.

3. For the purposes of the last-preceding section hereof the Board may set aside as a site any land belonging to it, or acquire a site by purchase or otherwise, and also may apply such portion of its general funds as it thinks necessary.

Acquisition of site.

4. Upon such residence being duly completed to the satisfaction of the Governor the following provisions shall apply:—

Contributions in aid of cost thereof.

(1.) The Colonial Treasurer shall, without further appropriation than this Act, pay to the Board out of the Consolidated Fund the sum of one thousand pounds.

(2.) The Governor shall, by notice in the Gazette, vest in the Board for an estate in fee-simple the site of the now existing Admiralty House and grounds (being the parcel of land described in the Schedule hereto), subject to but with the benefit and advantage of all leases or tenancies then affecting the same.

5. Upon such parcel of land being vested in the Board as aforesaid the following provisions shall apply:—

Board may sell or dispose of present Admiralty House.

(1.) The District Land Registrar shall, without fee, duly record the Board's title thereto, and issue a certificate of title in respect thereof.

(2.) The Board may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the land, and of the buildings thereon, as it thinks fit (subject to all such leases or tenancies as aforesaid), and all moneys arising therefrom shall become part of the general funds of the Board.

6. It shall be the duty of the Board out of its general funds to at all times furnish and maintain the aforesaid residence, to the satisfaction of the Governor, as an Admiralty House and grounds for the free use of the Naval Commander-in-Chief, or, in the event of its not being required by him, then for the free use of any other distinguished Imperial or colonial officer at whose disposal the Board thinks fit to place the same.

Duties of Board as to Admiralty House.

7. It shall not be lawful for the Board to sell, lease, encumber, or otherwise deal with the aforesaid residence or the furnishings thereof without the previous consent of the Governor in writing.

Restriction on sale or lease thereof.

8. Such consent shall not be given unless and until—

(1.) The Governor is satisfied that the aforesaid residence is not required for the purposes of this Act; and Conditions under which Governor may consent to sale or lease.

(2.) The Board makes satisfactory arrangements with the Colonial Treasurer whereby all moneys arising from any such dealing will be paid over to him on behalf of Her Majesty, nevertheless to the extent only of the grant made to the Board under section four hereof, plus the capital value of the said existing Admiralty House and grounds according to a valuation made under "The Government Valuation of Lands Act, 1896," at the time when they are vested in the Board under the same section.

Schedule.

SCHEDULE.

ALL that parcel of land situate in the City of Auckland, containing 2 acres and 6 perches, more or less, being Allotment No. 17 of Section No. 8 on the plan of that city (containing originally 1 acre and 31 perches, more or less), together with the portion of reclaimed land contiguous thereto, and containing 15 perches, more or less; as the said parcel of land is more particularly described and delineated in a plan in the Public Works Office, numbered P.W. 95/1816.
