An Act to amend the Licensing Trusts Act 1949, the Masterton Licensing Trust Act 1947, and the Invercargill Licensing Trust Act 1950 [14 December 1962]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title and commencement—(1) This Act may be cited as the Licensing Trusts Amendment Act 1962.

(2) This Act shall come into force on the first day of June, nineteen hundred and sixty-three:

Provided that sections 3, 12, and 21 of this Act shall come into force on the first day of April, nineteen hundred and sixty-three.

PART I

LICENSING TRUSTS

2. This Part to be read with Licensing Trusts Act 1949—This Part of this Act shall be read together with and deemed part of the Licensing Trusts Act 1949 (in this Part referred to as the principal Act).

3. Remuneration of members—The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 8 (as substituted by subsection (1) of section 2 of the Licensing Trusts Amendment Act 1953), the following section:

“8A. The Trust may pay to each of its members, other than the Chairman, remuneration at the rate of thirty shillings in respect of each meeting of the Trust or of any committee of the Trust attended by him:

“Provided that the total amount that may be paid under this section to any member in any financial year shall not exceed the sum of seventy-eight pounds.”

4. Premises in which liquor may be sold—The principal Act is hereby further amended by repealing section 32, and substituting the following section:

“32. (1) Liquor may be sold in the district by or on behalf of the Trust in such premises as the Trust may determine, and it shall not be necessary for any licence under the Sale of Liquor Act 1962 to be issued to the Trust or to any person selling liquor on behalf of the Trust.

“(2) The Trust may, with the prior approval in each case of the Minister, establish and maintain taverns for the sale of liquor in premises (other than a restaurant) in which accommodation is not provided for the travelling public:

“Provided that nothing in this subsection shall be construed to limit or affect the duty of the Trust under this Act to provide premises for the accommodation of the travelling public.

“(3) Any approval given by the Minister under subsection (2) of this section may be given on and subject to such terms and conditions as the Minister thinks fit, and may at any time be varied or revoked.

“(4) Except in the case of any tavern established pursuant to subsection (2) of this section or of any restaurant premises of a standard approved by the Minister under section 28A of this Act or of any premises established temporarily pursuant to section 33 of this Act, and except in the case of booth premises at which liquor is sold pursuant to the succeeding provisions of this section, liquor shall not be sold for consumption on the premises where it is sold unless on those premises reasonable and adequate provision is made for the supply of accommodation and meals to the public.

“(5) With the prior approval of a Magistrate, liquor may be sold at any place, on any occasion or at any event in respect of which a booth licence could be granted under the Sale of Liquor Act 1962,—

“(a) By the Trust; or

“(b) By any person holding a written permit granted by the Trust in that behalf, upon and subject to any terms and conditions imposed pursuant to subsection (6) of this section.

“(6) On any application being made for a permit under subsection (5) of this section, the Trust may in its discretion refuse to grant a permit, or may grant a permit upon and subject to such terms and conditions as may be approved by the Magistrate.

“(7) For the purposes of subsection (5) of this section—

“(a) Liquor may be sold for consumption only on the booth premises where it is sold, and only on such days and during such hours as may be approved by the Magistrate, not being days during which licensed premises are required to be closed for the sale of liquor, and not being before nine o'clock in the morning or after six o'clock in the evening on any other day:

“(b) The provisions of subsections (2) and (5) of section 69 of the Sale of Liquor Act 1962 shall apply as if the Trust or the holder of the permit were the holder of a booth licence under that Act.”

5. Situation of hotels—Section 34 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsections (3) to (13), and substituting the following subsections:

“(3) The Trust shall give notice, by advertisement published twice in a newspaper circulating in the Trust district with an interval of not less than five nor more than ten days between each publication of the advertisement, of its intention to establish any hotel.

“(4) The site of the proposed hotel shall be sufficiently described or referred to in the notice to enable it to be readily identified without the necessity of reference to the plans or records of any office.

“(5) The provisions of subsections (5) to (11) and (13) of section 92 of the Sale of Liquor Act 1962 (which relate to the making of objections to the Town and Country Planning Appeal Board against a proposal to establish hotel or tavern premises) shall apply as if the Trust were an applicant for a licence for premises on that site and as if the reference to the Commission in the said subsection (11) were omitted.

“(6) If the Town and Country Planning Appeal Board upholds any objection made pursuant to subsection (5) of this section, the Trust shall not establish the hotel on that site.

“(7) For the purposes of this section, the term ‘hotel’ includes any premises (other than a restaurant, and other than booth premises) intended to be used for the retail sale or supply of liquor in quantities of less than two gallons to any one person at any one time.”

(2) For the purposes of this section, the provisions of subsections (1) to (3) of section 33 of this Act shall apply, with all necessary modifications, in the same manner as if the Commission were reviewing proposals under that section.
